

OPERATOR. AUTHOR. RECORDING ARTIST.

MARK TULLOCH

One man. One lived story.

Books, music, businesses and systems built from the same journey.

THE STORY

Mark Tulloch is an Australian-born author, recording artist and business operator based in Bali. Originally from Narooma, he has spent more than 35 years in hospitality and operations across Australia, the United Kingdom and Indonesia, including a former role as COO of Bali Realty. He founded Lumindra and creates music as Conscious Systems. His published books, The Pub, The Punch and The Path and Bipolar Aware, explore lived experience, identity and rebuilding. His albums, Systems of Light and Your Inner Voice, carry that story into music. He operates Sunshooters Bar & Grill in Kerobokan, Bali.

THREE CONVERSATIONS WORTH HAVING

From Narooma to Bali - A life in hospitality, personal upheaval and the work of starting again.

Books and a soundtrack - How the same experiences became memoir and Conscious Systems music.

The operator behind Lumindra - What real business pressure teaches about people, decisions and systems.

"I wasn't scattered. I was building the pieces."
